

Cornwall Diversity Food Festival

Food is one of the powerful tools that can be used to encourage dialogue but at times it is not well celebrated. It is the essence of this day to capture that power by showcasing the many food types enjoyed around the world but prepared in Cornwall.

Saturday, 18th November 2017

All Saints Highertown Church Hall, Truro TR1 3LD

12.00 noon – 4.30 pm

The face of Cornwall is changing and what a way to capture that transformation than with food, encouraging social cohesion while celebrating differences of nationalities, cultures, faiths, denominations and race.

Cornwall Diversity Food Festival is an event open to all age groups to encourage children to learn from a young age and adults to share and enjoy food and probably swap recipes. This is also an opportunity to promote British values, encourage integration, tolerance and social inclusion through food.
